As you are probably well aware, Adobe MAX is properly kicking off today. And if you are as unfortunate as myself and did not make it out to LA to attend in person then fear not as the developer gods (namely Adobe and Akamai) have put up a live webcast of both keynotes for us. But remember you need to register, so make sure you head over to the MAX website and do so. DO IT NOW!

The Keynotes run from 9:30 am - 11:30 am PDT (5.30pm start UK time) today October 25 and 10:00 am - 12:00 pm PDT (6pm UK time) tomorrow October 26.

All MAX sessions will be recorded and will be available for on demand viewing after the event.
